If you're looking for a great gift to thank your bridesmaids—each with her own personality, sense of style and color preferences—look no further than these sparkly, handmade friendship rings by Cha Cha Bella.

The rings put moxie on the map: they're entirely handmade, of Italian sterling silver, Swarovski crystals and pearls, and come in all the colors of the rainbow. Owner Heather Thompson (who runs the biz in Canton with her mom and sister) originally created similar rings for her sister's bridesmaids, and every ring is inspired—and named after—an actual person. My fave, since I love blue, is the Michala.

The custom nature of the work means that you can pick from one of the large collection of colorful designs or design your own rings, tailored to fit each of your bridesmaids. Each ring comes wrapped in a pink bag with a friendship poem. And did we mention that these are eminently affordable? Most hover around $50, and there's a discount for multiple ring purchases. The rings also come with a 10-year warranty, a nice touch, since these rings are meant to be worn long past your big day
